Short Answer Prompt:

The beginning of a summary for this poem might be: Hector collected all kinds of broken things. He valued his collection a lot and wanted to share it with others, but . . ."

Copy the beginning summary statements and complete the last sentence so that it tells what the whole poem is about.

Then quote two or three parts of the poem that help to tell what the poem is about. These quotes would be the parts you used to figure out the whole summary statement.

Student Response:

When you are finished writing, evaluate your writing. Use the criteria from the webpage and these reminders:

- I copied the beginning of the summary statement.
- I completed the summary statements.
- I quoted at least two parts of the poem that help to tell what it is about.

If you said YES to all four statements, chances are you earned 2 points! Way to go.
