{ Course Description }

This is a course for students who have already taken this class and not earned credit. A diagnostic assessment, given at the beginning of the course, indicates what standards have been met, and what skills need to be practiced and demonstrated. Based on the results of the diagnostic assessment, an individual plan for completing the course is developed by the teacher and communicated to the student. Upon successful completion of the course, the student earns a passing grade (C) and .5 credit in Sophomore English.

Students will develop their reading and writing skills by completing the required analytical assignments. Guardian permission is required to view the required films. Students must be able to view the films to be able to successfully complete this course. Students are responsible to obtain a copy of all books and films.

This course helps meet the state minimum requirements of 3.0 English credits. Please check with your district for more specific requirements.

Course Materials:

Materials Required for class are: Ray Bradbury's book Fahrenheit 451, and Sophocles' play "Antigone."

Course Work

All formative and summative assignments will be submitted through our learning system, on the assessment pages. We recommend working in a writing program, such as Word, on your home computer, saving, and then cutting and pasting your work into the assessment text boxes. Plagiarized assignments will receive no credit. Students who complete class successfully will have followed the timeline laid out in our course schedule.

Students can contact the course instructor in several ways including: email, online live chat, online live office hours, by telephone, through assignment pages in class, and by coming to our campus in Federal Way.

At the beginning of the course, you will want to obtain copies of the books. We strongly recommended that they are purchased new or used so that you are able to take notes on the pages, highlight, and of course, keep for your own personal library. Your final project requires quotes from the novels -- if you choose not to buy the books, be certain to keep a list of quotes you found meaningful to use in your final work.

Grading

Students must earn 70% of the points possible in class to earn credit on our transcript. Each assignment's requirements are described in detail on the website. Students who wish to revise an assignment to increase the grade are encouraged to do so, by making revisions based on the teacher's comments in BOLD type and resending the work. Partial credit will show in the gradebook while the assignment is being revised. Grades are posted online immediately as assignments are scored; students and parents are encouraged to check in regularly to gauge progress.

Occupational Credit:

This course may qualify for *occupational credit. Please consult your school counselor for further clarification.

*Please note that FLA901 (Sign Language) does not qualify for occupational credit.
